

MEANINGFUL MONDAY'S

— Hands-On Volunteering —

Honeywell Meaningful Mondays

Honeywell Meaningful Mondays bring teammates together throughout the summer to make a meaningful difference in the community, all without leaving the workplace. During the lunch hour, employees come together for hands-on volunteer activities that are simple to participate in but have a lasting impact on local nonprofits and the people they serve.

These bite-sized volunteer opportunities also create meaningful moments of connection. They give teammates a chance to step away from their day-to-day work, meet colleagues from across the organization, strengthen relationships, and experience the impact of giving back together.

Summer is also a critical season for many nonprofits serving children and families. Whether they are hosting summer camps, promoting literacy, creating opportunities for play, or supporting hardworking parents, these organizations depend on essential supplies to bring their programs to life.

Through Meaningful Mondays, Honeywell teammates assemble thoughtfully designed kits and resources that put those much-needed supplies directly into the hands of local organizations and ultimately, the individuals and families they serve.

"We have truly valued our partnership with SHARE Charlotte, not only as an extension of our team that helps identify meaningful volunteer opportunities for our employees, but also for managing the entire process from start to finish. Their support allows me to stay focused on our global strategy and confidently drive toward our impact goals. I highly recommend working with the SHARE Charlotte team; their deep knowledge of the nonprofit sector and their ability to deliver fun, engaging events that our employees genuinely enjoy are invaluable."
